Suitable for school pupils aged 11–18, this Handbook covers everything you need to help you communicate in English. For students, this reference book: • is a practical guide to using English in all situations • may be used in the classroom or for independent home study • contains rules and explanations written in a simple, logical format to help you improve your English • provides tests on each section to help assess your progress and reinforce learning. For teachers, this reference book: • is an invaluable teaching tool presented in a clear, user-friendly format • allows you to teach English in context by using whatever is relevant and of interest to your students • saves you preparation time • can be used alongside any other classroom text. Sections include: • Language • Literature • Analysing texts • Visual analysis • The writing process • Public speaking (oral communication). In addition there are self-tests on each major section.

Covers every aspect of the English language you will need - from senior primary to year 10 and beyond. The presentation is simple, logical, and colour-coded for easy understanding and recall.

The series builds an extensive collection of high quality descriptions of languages around the world. Each volume offers a comprehensive grammatical description of a single language together with fully analyzed sample texts and, if appropriate, a word list and other relevant information which is available on the language in question. There are no restrictions as to language family or area, and although special attention is paid to hitherto undescribed languages, new and valuable treatments of better known languages are also included. No theoretical model is imposed on the authors; the only criterion is a high standard of scientific quality.

""Discusses the history of the lute, the archlute, and the theorbo and gives practical advice on technique, the choice of instrument for particular music, and the preparation of scores.""--Publisher's description."

Language Toolkit 4 is a workbook for middle secondary students to support the development of language and literacy skills through various communication modes. Students will develop the skills they need to read, view, listen and speak, and to write and create their own texts in a variety of contexts and for a variety of audiences and purposes. With a strong focus on visual grammar and multimodal texts, the workbook's units are organised around different text types that provide a context for the development of language skills.

- Grammatical rules are clearly and simply explained
- Comprehension, grammar, spelling, punctuation and vocabulary exercises build language and literacy skills
- Spelling tests and dictionary exercises encourage vocabulary development confidence
- Revision exercises allow students to review their progress and strengthen their understanding and confidence from one unit to the next.
