~~Clinch Mountain Backstep Tab~~ ~~Details and Ratings~~ ~~Banjo~~ ... Although I stayed pretty close to the melody the entire time " Clinch Mt. Backstep " is perfect for soloing over. The majority of the tune is one chord, G (really A, but we guitar players play this song with our capo at the second fret). Once you get the melody under your fingers try playing the G blues scale over the changes.

July ~~Clinch Mountain Backstep~~ ~~flatpick~~ Clinch Mountain Backstep is played in G-modal tuning , sometimes called mountain modal or sawmill tuning). The modal sound is often described as haunting, or sad. It definitely does have a minor quality. This tune is often played with the banjo or guitar capoed on the 2nd fret (which puts it in A-modal, I guess).

~~Clinch Mountain Backstep, Part 2 | Intermediate Bluegrass~~ ... Guitar Tab - Clinch Mountain Backstep- Beginner: This is a fabulous banjo song that can be nicely adapted to the guitar. It has only 2 chords - Am and E7, but there are a lot of turns and some great blues sounds you get from this song, being in the minor key. One of the best arrangements I have herd of this song is from the CD Bluegrass '96.

~~Clinch Mountain Backstep Beginner Tab~~ ~~Flatpick Guitar Tab~~ Although the melody of Clinch Mountain Backstep consists only of the notes of the Am pentatonic scale, it is called at jams in A (Major) rather than Am because the '1' chord that is used in the chord progression for the song is an A Major Chord rather than an Am Chord ('1m'). To call Clinch Mountain Backstep in A Minor instead of in A (Major) at a jam would imply that 1m Chords are to be played in place of 1 Chords.
