Motivation and Personality (book) -
Wikipedia

Motivation and Personality by Abraham H. Maslow is one of his major works. It was first published in 1954 and it has become a classic, most known for Maslow's outline of the hierarchical pyramid of human needs, which became a mainstay in the understanding of human nature and psychology. At the time it was published it created a revolution in the way the western world understood child care and the later consequences of failing to provide a safe, nurturing environment for children.

Motivation And Personality. A H Maslow. Prabhat Prakashan, Jan 1, 1981 - Self-Help. 0 Reviews. I have tried in this revision to incorporate the main lessons of the last sixteen years. These lessons have been considerable. I consider it a real and extensive revision-even though I had to do only a moderate amount of rewriting-because the main thrust of the book has been modified in important ways which I shall detail below.

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs | Simply Psychology

Psychologist Abraham Maslow first developed his famous theory of individual development and motivation in the 1940's. He suggested that human beings have a hierarchy of needs. That is, that all humans act in a way which will address basic needs, before moving on to satisfy other, so-called higher level needs.
