There is no greater privilege in the world than being a Christian. That is no over-statement. Many people think that you are best off if you manage to own you own home, or if you have a good job, or if you have a good family. The reality is that none of those things comes a patch on being a follower of Jesus Christ. This morning, we are beginning a mini series of sermons.

Hebrews 10:19-21 - The privilege of being a Christian

The privilege of being a man is to behold the miracle of love, to contemplate the divine nature of beauty incarnate in the loveliness of woman, and to "taste and see the goodness of the Lord." In short, just as woman intimately senses the touch of God when she conceives a child, man feels the personal hand of God when he discovers the woman God created for him to marry.

written by Emma C Williams. Thinking itself is the privilege of being human. Our intellectual ascendancy defined us as a species and is inextricably linked to our success and our ability to connect with one another. Everything that nature can bestow upon us in our human lifespan is also a privilege: intelligence, youth, a healthy mind in a healthy body.

Seven breathtaking privileges of being a child of God ... The privilege of peerage is the body of special privileges belonging to members of the British peerage. It is distinct from parliamentary privilege, which applies only to those peers serving in the House of Lords and the members of the House of Commons, while Parliament is in session and forty days before and after a Parliamentary session. The privileges have been lost and eroded over time. Only three survived into the 20th century: the right to be tried by other peers of the realm instead of ju
