Tuck Everlasting Summary. The narrator explains that the first week of August is the highest point of the year's cycle and that during this time, people do things they regret later. The world, the narrator suggests, is like a giant wheel, with spokes connected in the center by a hub that, in this case, is a small wood owned by the Foster family. On the outside of this hub, connected by the wood, are the Tuck family, ten-year-old Winnie Foster, and the man in the yellow suit.
